Dear Ms. Miller:

Please accept our apologies for the clerical error. You are correct that the attached letter was not our letter of appeal for Funding Year 2014. Please substitute the same with the document attached. Fortunately, the correct document was sent yesterday via certified mail, which you should receive in a few days.

Thank you very much for your diligence regarding this matter.

Best regards,

Sara I. Benítez Delgado

Subject: RE: letter of Appeal concerning: Biblioteca Abelardo Díaz Alfaro
Funding Year: 2014

The only letter attached to your second email is a letter referencing two Form 471 Applications for Fund Year 2010.

The body of your email is referencing a Form 471 Application for Fund Year 2014.

Is it possible you attached the wrong letter?

Also, there was nothing attached to this email you sent to me.

I can wait to see what is received in the mail if you would like.

Thank you

Kelly

Dear Ms. Miller:

Thank you for your quick response. Shortly after this email was sent, we became aware that the letter had not been attached. We immediately re-sent the same with the attached letter, and as precautionary measure, a hard copy of the letter was sent yesterday, via certified mail. If you still have any concerns with this filing, please let me know at your earliest convenience.

Best regards,
Sara Benitez
